Day 1 - Thur. May 12 - Fly to Fairbanks, Alaska. Alaska's "Golden Heart City" of Fairbanks is a great introduction to the heart of this unique state. Check in to your hotel and get ready for the beginning of your adventure.

Day 2 Friday, May 13 - A full day in Fairbanks gives you time to get a feel for the unique culture and history of the region. You'll take a cruise on an authentic Sternwheeler Riverboat down the Chena River then enjoy a Gold Dredge 8 tour with the chance to pan for your own gold. A hearty miner's lunch is included. The evening is at leisure

Day 3 Saturday, May 14 - This morning, you say goodbye to Fairbanks for the spectacular trip to Denali National Park via motorcoach. You'll be welcomed at the Denali Princess Wilderness Lodge for a 2-night retreat. Check in with the Guest Service Desk for help in planning your own Denali adventure like a husky homestead tour, river rafting, hiking, glacier flightseeing or an off-road ATV adventure. Or you may enjoy the spectacular main lodge, river view deck, and Princess Village with the popular Christmas cottage and sugar shack. Be sure to check out Fannie Q's Saloon, named after a famed local homesteader, or sit outside at a fireside patio.

Denali Princess Wilderness Lodge

Day 4 –Sunday May 15- You have a full day to get out into one of America's best national parks. This afternoon, explore Denali National Park on a Natural History Tour, watching for glimpses of Denali as well as Denali's "Big Five"; moose, caribou, bears, wolves and Dall sheep.

Day 5 - Monday, May 16—This morning, you'll travel by motorcoach to Denali State Park for two relaxing nights at the Mt. McKinley Princess Wilderness Lodge. Take in the sensational views of Denali and the Alaska Range with a glass of wine in the Great Room or on the expansive deck. Hear stories about climbing

Denali in the Hudson Theater or roast a marshmallow at the fireside patio.

Day 6 Tuesday May 17 - You have a full day to plan however you choose. Stop by the Tour Desk to book a variety of optional excursions. Walk the nature trails around the lodge or sit and gaze at the majesty of "The Great One" from the lodge's treehouse, designed and built by Pete Nelson of Animal Planet's Treehouse Masters.

Day 7 –Wed. May 18 - After a morning enjoying the vistas, you'll transfer to the historic town of Talkeetna to board the exclusive Direct-to-the-Wilderness Rail for the journey to Whittier and your waiting ship. The train ride to Whittier is breathtaking. We will be riding in a glass domed car with food and drink service and narration as we travel through Anchorage and down to the coast.

The Princess hostess will check us in during the train ride so when we get to the ship we can just walk from the train to our cabins.

Day 8 - Thursday, May 19 - Hubbard Glacier, Scenic Cruising - Hubbard Glacier is the largest tidewater glacier on the North American continent.

Day 9– Friday, May 20 - Glacier Bay National Park, Alaska (Scenic Cruising) - The marine wilderness of Glacier Bay National Park and Preserve provides opportunities for adventure, a living laboratory for observing the ebb and flow of glaciers, and a chance to study life as it returns in the wake of retreating ice. Amidst majestic scenery, Glacier Bay offers us now, and for all time, a connection to a powerful and wild landscape.

Day 9 - Saturday, May 21 - Skagway, Alaska - The sidewalks are all but rolled up in Skagway come winter, so you can only imagine the frightful conditions endured by the gold prospectors who passed through en route to the Yukon, with a mandatory ton of supplies to be hauled with them over the steep and treacherous Trail of '98. 21st-century summertime visits to Skagway require nothing of the sort, but you can still ride the antique White Pass & Yukon narrow-gauge railway up through silvery-purple rock faces, past Deadhorse Gulch, to see what it was like back then. Biking, rock-climbing and flightseeing adventures are also available from Skagway.

Day 10 - Sunday, May 22, - Juneau, Alaska - Alaska's capital city, accessible only by boat or by plane, may be geographically secluded, but it's a sociable spot. The city sits on the rugged shores of Gastineau Channel, its skyline dominated by immediate mountains. The famous Mendenhall Glacier rests in Juneau's back yard. Area waters are home to humpbacks, halibut and an array of salmon. The national bird flies local skies. Roughly 50 percent of the world's population of eagles resides in Alaska.

Day 11 - Monday, May 23, - Ketchikan, Alaska - Ketchikan is well known as the salmon capital of the world and a paradise for sport fishermen and naturalists alike. During the summer months, the town bustles with visitors from all over the world. While the rustic boardwalk on Creek Street preserves a distinct historic feel, the town hums with new construction to keep up with the ever-expanding wave of tourism. Ketchikan has a population of 14,500 and is built along a steep hillside, with sections of the town built right over the water on pilings. An outstanding collection of totem poles make a visit to Ketchikan essential for anyone interested in Native art. Ketchikan's name supposedly comes from the native term "Katch Kanna", which roughly translates: "spread wings of a thundering eagle" and rightly named, for you only need to look along the water line and you're likely to see many bald eagles on waterside perches.

Day 12 - Tuesday, May 24, - At Sea - What do you want to do today? With Princess you have the freedom to choose from an endless selection of activities tailored to suit your unique onboard experience. You have variety of poolside relaxation options, you can take dance lessons, go to cooking demonstrations, take financial workshops, or attend maritime history lessons. Princess also offers a variety of sporting activities.

Day 13 - Wednesday, May 25 - Arrive Vancouver, B.C. - You will need your passport to enter Canada. We will meet a local guide for a city tour of Vancouver.

Day 14-Thursday May 26-We will transfer to the airport and fly home from Vancouver.
